Itinerary (Reverse Trip for Melbourne to Sydney)

Day
1

Sydney to Batemans Bay via Canberra (with English speaking guide / hostess)

Depart Sydney at approx 7.00am. Travel through the Southern Highlands, noted for its stud properties and country retreats and on through the Goulburn Sheep Grazing area. Pass mysterious Lake George and enter the Australian Capital Territory. Visit the billion dollar new Parliament House, tour Canberra including the embassy circuit, visit the Australian War Memorial and take in the views from lookouts overlooking Canberra. Leaving Canberra about 4 pm, we arrive into Batemans Bay at approx 6.15 pm

Meals: Lunch Overnight : Batemans Bay 3.5* motel

Day
2

Batemans Bay to Metung (Gippsland Lakes)

From Batemans Bay we then travel along the coast exploring small fishing villages and towns. Continue via the coast road past the beautiful beaches of Bermagui, Tathra and Merrimbula before stopping for lunch in Eden. A 'must see' stop is the Whale Museum at Eden where we learn of the interaction between the Killer Whales and fishermen. In the afternoon we travel into Victoria, through timber country and past Mallacoota, Cann River and Orbost on our way to Lakes Entrance and our overnight stop at Metung. Metung is a delightful village set on a thin arm of land that extends out into the Gippsland Lakes. Water laps the shores on two sides.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch Overnight : Metung, Gippsland Lakes

Day
3

Metung, Phillip Island Penguins, Melbourne

Enjoy a morning cruise on the beautiful Gippsland Lakes . These lakes form the largest inland waterway in Australia. We then travel through Gippsland and the towns of Bairnsdale and Sale, where we visit the old Port of Sale. At the fishing village of San Remo, we cross onto Phillip Island, home for one of the largest colonies of Little Penguins. Witness the world phenomenon of the Penguin Parade. Each evening at Summerland Beach the Little Penguins return from the sea and make their way to their burrows. Watch as they cross the beach and walk under the elevated boardwalk. Inspect the multi - million dollar Visitor Centre and learn of the life of the Little Penguins. Late evening arrival Melbourne Meals: Breakfast, Lunch
